Level 1 Fitness Classes are designed to keep you fit and challenged without aggravating any underlying physical barriers that you might have. Chairs are often used for support. It is a great way to grow your fitness and/or enhance and maintain your fitness level.

Level 2 Fitness Classes are designed to keep you fit and challenged while offering alternative exercises for those with some physical limitations. These classes may require mat work on the floor and free standing aerobic/cardiac exercises.

Level 2/3 Fitness Classes are designed to keep you fit & challenged. All exercises include intensity options. There are alternatives for those with some physical restrictions, and also options for those seeking more challenge. A great blend of levels, where there is something for everyone. This hybrid format also encourages a natural progression in training and fitness. These classes encompass strength, balance, flexibility, functional movement, and may include mat work on the floor.

We are Watching you! As you dance and exercise on ZOOM we are watching you on-line as well. Please note that you are required to keep your camera on while you are on Zoom. Do make your own precautions: clear your space to work out, have your phone nearby, wear good shoes and let family/neighbour know your exercise routines. Keep safe!

Descriptions LIVE & ZOOM

Gentle Hatha Yoga: Hatha with Rhona (Mon) LIVE

Please join Rhona for a gentle yoga session this fall. If you are new to yoga, she will guide you as you learn the benefits of mindfulness with yoga.

Yoga: Hatha Method with Mary Tsai (Wed) LIVE

Join Mary for a thorough yoga session that will challenge you and build your skill set. Working on flexibility and movement.

Yoga: Restorative Yoga Rhona (Thurs) LIVE

Restorative yoga is a style of yoga that emphasizes relaxation and stress reduction. It involves holding supported poses for extended periods, often with the aid of props like pillows, blocks, blankets and bolsters, to promote physical and mental calm. This practice activates the parasympathetic nervous system, which helps the body relax.

CHAIR Yoga: with Liane (Fri) LIVE

Offering seated yoga poses that make the practice more accessible, with some standing poses with chair support. A gentle practice to improve movement, balance, increase range of motion in the joints to improve flexibility.

Studio Membership fee + $2.00 daily drop in fee

Beginner Pottery Wheel LIVE

Instructor: Andrina Cox

Beginner wheel course demonstrations of wheel throwing basics and hand building techniques.

Limited space of 4 participants as there are only 2 wheels. While one group throws a cylinder for a cup, group 2 will make slump bowls from slabs of clay.

Following week trimming and handles will be added to our wheel thrown and hand built vessels and we will explore new projects for those with limited experience.

Thursdays 9:30 - 11:30 am

Sept 18 - Nov 6 (8 weeks)

Cost: $90

Acrylics with Ariel LIVE

Instructor: Ariel Lyons

Mondays 10:00 - 11:30 am

Oct 6 - Dec 1 (8 weeks*)

*no class Oct 13

Cost: $75

This class is suitable for beginners or those with experience. If you are experienced you can work on a larger project and I will demonstrate some different materials that you might like to use. For beginners we will look at how acrylics differ from watercolours and oils and then move into a project. Most projects will take longer than the one class so that you have time to build on your ideas. We will look at landscape, still life, portrait and abstract subject matter and explore different approaches.

Supplies:

Acrylics, brushes and surfaces to work on. (Canvas board, canvas or heavy paper) Because acrylic is permanent you should wear "paint clothes" or have an apron. You can use a disposable palette or a covered palette. You should invest in some baby wipes for clean up.

Stained Glass Club LIVE

Have your own project and skill set, work with fellow stained glass enthusiasts.

 Note: You will be working with tools which require manual dexterity and prior knowledge of working with these tools.*

Fridays 9:30 - 11:30 am

September 26 - December 12

Cost: Drop-in fee $2.00

Landscape Felting Workshop LIVE

Instructor: Meg Richardson

Wednesday October 22

9:30 am - 12:30 pm

Cost: $50 (all materials included) (12 person maximum)

Learn how to felt your own small scene using nothing but colourful wool fibre, a special needle... and friction from a repetitive poking motion! Unleash your creativity in great company with hot drinks and tasty baked goods. Meg is a member of the Fibre Arts faculty at the Haliburton School of Art + Design, and a regular exhibitor at the Wild Oat Bakery Café in the Glebe.

Materials included, no previous experience required.

 Please note: You will be working with tools which require manual dexterity*

Watercolour with Ariel LIVE

Instructor: Ariel Lyons

Tuesdays 10:00 - 11:30 am

Oct 7 - Nov 25 (8 weeks)

Cost: $75

(10 person maximum)

Learn a variety of water media techniques exploring different subject matter including still-life, landscape, floral and design.

Watercolour paper varies with quality. If you are beginning, a watercolour pad is good enough, as is a pan set of watercolours.

Fall Colours Art Workshop with Yulia LIVE

Instructor: Yulia Lisitsyna

Friday Oct 17

12:30 - 2:00 pm

Cost: $45 (all materials included)

(10 person maximum)

For this fall themed art session we will create a realistic representation of a Glebe-located Victorian manor, with all the charming Thanksgiving adornments and visible presence of harvest season, such as piles of gourds, dry sunflowers, asters and chrysanthemums in their last splash of brightness.

We will use rough texture of oil pastels and dark washes of Sepia Ink, to help us render the depth and solidify the transparent washes of watercolour.

Clubs & Pastimes for Members

FREE Lecture: must register in advance for a seat or zoom link
950 Bank Street 230-5730 Wednesdays at 1:00 - 2:30 pm

SEPT 10: Rebecca Clouâtre, a mixed media visual artist based in Nepean, ON, will present Collage Art and Environmentalism: Recycling and Reimagining. This presentation will begin with a brief history of collage art, exploring its roots and its significance as an accessible and eco-friendly visual medium. Rebecca will then present an artist's talk, sharing insight into her creative practice and influences, including nature and motherhood. She will also discuss her past and current projects. It will be held LIVE and on ZOOM simultaneously.

SEPT 17: Tamara Levine is a retired adult educator and long-time Abbotsford member. She will present her new book for children, The Warmest Blanket in the World, inspired by her activist mother and grandmother, both women ahead of their time. When Ama shares a problem she is facing with her great-granddaughter Frida, Frida decides she has to do something to help, just like Ama taught her. "The book's messages of empathy and empowerment will resonate with all age groups, particularly with young girls." (Carol Sutherland-Brown, Glebe Report March 2025.) This will be held LIVE.

SEPT 24: Dr. Richard Knapton is an avid birder and researcher. He has taught biology and ornithology courses at three universities and leads birding tours. He will be presenting: Local Birds Migrate. Fall migration in birds is a fascinating topic with amazing recent discoveries on how birds navigate from their breeding ground to their winter grounds with no prior experience of the journey. This will be held LIVE.

OCT 1: Claude Paul Boivin is the Board Chair of CARP (Canadian Association of Retired Persons), Ottawa chapter. He will present an overview of CARP's role in advocating for seniors, including better access to health care, financial security, and fighting against ageism for older adults. CARP is a non-partisan, non-profit organization that focuses on issues such as long term care and fall prevention. It will be held LIVE and on ZOOM simultaneously.

OCT 8: Renu Pillay is the owner and pharmacist of Whole Health Pharmacy Glebe. Renu will speak to the changing role of the pharmacist, what they can advise and prescribe in 2025. Learn what seniors are entitled to if they are not covered under private insurance. He will also share some of the unique services offered through Whole Health Pharmacy Glebe. This will be held LIVE.

OCT 15: After a career as an academic archaeologist with a specialization in South America, Dr. Emily Stovel developed a career in Museum Administration, working to bring community stories into small rural museums throughout South and North America. During her talk, she'll give examples of new museum practices and new museum ideas. She looks forward to hearing your experiences in museums and demonstrating some of the activities she regularly develops and implements with staff. It will be held LIVE and on ZOOM simultaneously.

OCT 22: Nancy Edwards is a Professor Emeritus at the U of O. and heads CARP's Fall Prevention Committee. Nancy will enlighten us on how important Fall Prevention is, with practical advice for individuals in their own homes and how fall prevention can reduce health care costs in Canada. Bring a pen and paper and take notes to take action in your own environment. It will be held LIVE and on ZOOM simultaneously.

OCT 29: Karin Davidson-Taylor, former School Programs Officer, Royal Botanical Gardens and Abbotsford member is back to present: Squash Season! Have you got a favourite pumpkin or squash you like to use? Join Karin to discover more about this amazing group of popular summer and fall plants, including their origin, history, varieties and uses. It will be held LIVE and on ZOOM simultaneously.

NOV 5: Steve Zan, (mostly) retired aeronautical engineer will present: Norfolk Island - Gem of the South Pacific. Steve will recount the adventures he and his wife had on Norfolk Island, an Australian territory and one of the most isolated islands on Earth. The talk will provide insight on the history, geography, economy, and cultural aspects of the island. Fun fact - despite having no export economy to the USA, the Island was subject to a 29% tariff recently. It will be held LIVE and on ZOOM simultaneously.

NOV 12: Stewart Dudley is a local author, he has recently been published in A Capital Mystery, the first-ever Ottawa Mystery Anthology, on October 15, 2025. Curated by long-time Ottawa mystery writer Mike Martin, author of the award-winning Sgt. Windflower Mystery series, this anthology features 21 original short stories that uncover the hidden corners, rich history and shadowy secrets of Canada's capital. We've asked Stewart to speak to his contribution and to read aloud a portion of his story: Dead End. This will be held LIVE.

NOV 19: Alex Neve is the 2025 CBC Massey Lecturer. His book, published on September 2, and five cross-Canada lectures this fall (culminating in Ottawa on October 30) deals with what is clearly an urgent and timely theme, Universal: Renewing Human Rights in a Fractured World. Alex will provide an overview of the concerns and recommendations that he explores in the lectures, and offer a behind the scenes look at what is involved in being passed the Massey torch. It will be held LIVE and on ZOOM simultaneously.

Patrons of Abbotsford Seniors Centre are encouraged to LOITER WITH US!
